Verse 2: Number one public figure what a pain,
Just puts another rattle in your brain.
Take another green but it's not the same.
So now you're on the sand lane every day,
Dancing with the bulls in any old way,
Running like a fox to keep up with me.

Additional lyrics

2. Way down the lane away, living for another day,
the aphids climb up in the drifting haze.
Swim seagull in the sky towards that hollow western isle.
My envied lady holds you fast in her gaze.
And the sun slips down bedding heavy behind,
the front of your dress all shadowy lined,
and the droning engine throbs in time with your beating heart.
Sing blue silver.

3. And watching lovers part, I feel you smiling.
What glass splinters lie so deep in your mind to tear out from your eyes with a word to stiffen brooding lies.
But I'll only watch you leave me further behind.
And the sun slips down bedding heavy behind,
the front of your dress all shadowy lined,
and the droning engine throbs in time with your beating heart.
Sin, sing blue silver.

Verse 2: Feel the breeze deep on the inside,
Look you down into the well.
If you can you'll see the world in all his fire
Take a chance like all dreamers
Can't find another way.
You don't have to dream it all
Just live a day.

Verse 3: Pretty looking road
I try to hold the rising floods that fill my skin.
Don't ask me why,
I'll keep my promise, I'll melt the ice.
And you wanted to dance
So I asked you to dance
But fear is in your soul.
Some people call it a one night stand
But we can call it paradise.

2. Can't tell the real from reflection
when all these faces look the same to me,
in ev'ry city such a desolate dream.
Some days are strange to number,
some say the seventh sounds a little bit stranger.
A year of Sundays seems to have drifted right by,
I could have sworn in one evening.
And I'm not seized in desperation,
no steel reproaches on the table from before.
But I can still feel those splinters of ice.
I look through the eyes of a stranger
for rumors in the wake of such a lonely crowd, trading in my shelter for danger.
I'm changing my name just as the sun goes down.
in the eyes of a stranger.
